

Upcoming training

with the Queensland Human Rights Commission

Queensland's Anti-Discrimination Act

ROCKHAMPTON: 6 March 2024

BUNDABERG: 10 May 2024

An introduction to rights and responsibilities under Queensland's Anti-Discrimination Act 1991, including key legal concepts and our role at the Queensland Human Rights Commission.

- Duration: 2 hours
- Cost: $114 per person (fee reduction available for some non-profits and community groups)
- Suitable for: Anyone

Unconscious bias

ROCKHAMPTON: 11 April 2024

This training helps participants better understand their own biases and how they affect day-to-day decision making.

- Duration: 4 hours
- Cost: $228 per person
- Suitable for: Anyone, particularly beneficial for human resource professionals and/or managers and supervisors

Sexual harassment

ROCKHAMPTON: 7 March 2024

BUNDABERG: 9 May 2024

This training aims to help both employees and employers to recognise, prevent and respond to sexual harassment in the workplace, exploring the prevalence and drivers of workplace sexual harassment and relevant legislation.

- Duration: 2 hours
- Cost: $114 per person
- Suitable for: Anyone

Queensland's Human Rights Act

ROCKHAMPTON: 8 May 2024

This session is an introduction to rights and responsibilities under Queensland's Human Rights Act 2019, including key legal concepts and our role at the Queensland Human Rights Commission.

- Duration: 2 hours
- Cost: $114 per person (fee reduction available for some non-profits and community groups)
- Suitable for: Anyone

To register:

Scan the QR code or visit our website at www.qhrc.qld.gov.au/training.

More information?

Contact Joanne Keevers at our Rockhampton office on 07 4933 5119 or email joanne.keevers@qhrc.qld.gov.au.

Queensland
Human Rights Commission