

SCHEDULE 7— Performance indicators

(i) Table 1

Column 1 DEO		Column 2 Activity	Column 3 Objective	Column 4 Assessment
Mount Morgan Shire is a pleasant, safe, and healthy place to live, maintaining and extending its range of both public and private services and facilities to the community, as a means of safeguarding the quality of life of its residents and visitors.	1.	Survey the neighborhood of selected development approval 12-month after the use commences.	Gauge the level of reported amenity as a consequence of the approval.	The level of amenity maintained in the area post the Development Approval reflects effective of the Development Approval process
	2.	Established an inventory of existing services and facilities for health, family services, entertainment and recreation.	Gauge the level of changes to services and facilities provided by Council, the State or private operators.	The level of service added or lost to the shire may reflects the effective of the assessment process and or general support of the scheme for community services
	3.	Maintain a complaint register regarding the development process	Gauge the comments of complainants as a consequence of the development process.	The nature of the comments will reflect the effective of the planning scheme objective for this DEO.
	4.	Maintain a register of accommodation for the aged within Mount Morgan	Gauge the status of accommodation verse demand	The level of service added or lost to the town may reflects the effective of the planning scheme to encourage this type of development in the Shire

Mount Morgan Shire has a healthy, vibrant, sustainable and diverse economy comprising mining and mineral processing, agriculture (including intense agriculture), service industries related to residents and to other undertakings in the Central Queensland region.	1.	Maintain a register of inquires about developments in the shire	Gauge the level of inquires that translate into Development Application	The number of translation of inquiries into application is presumptive evidence of the effectiveness of the scheme
	2.	Maintain a register of business that close down or commence.	Gauge the level of sustainability of business activity in the shire	The number of establishment or closures may indicate effectiveness of the scheme in support and encouraging business in the shire
	3.	Review the development register annually to compare the types of Development Approval	Gauge the level of Code assessment compared to impact assessments.	A greater number of code assessment may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in support and encouraging business in the shire
	4.	Maintain a register of Domestic business commenced since the scheme that closes down or commence.	Gauge the level of uptake of the opportunity to establish of Domestic business	A greater number of Domestic businesses may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in support and encouraging business in the shire.
	5.	Maintain a register of Tourist facilities provided in the shire	Gauge the level of infrastructure support for tourism.	A greater number of facilities may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in support and encouraging tourism in the shire.
	6.	Under take an annual review of the building register	Gauge the level of Development Approval for removal buildings.	A greater number of removals may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in encouraging residential development in the shire

Mount Morgan Shire is a unique place characterized by its important heritage and town character values.	1.	Maintain a register of the number of heritage registered premises in active use.	Gauge the sustainability of heritage registered premises;	A increase or decrease of the active use of the heritage registered premises may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in support and encouraging heritage values the shire
	2.	Maintain a register of number of the building including heritage registered premises destroyed or demolished	Gauge the community attitudes towards heritage attitudes.	A increase in the destruction of building including heritage registered premises may indicate the ineffectiveness of the scheme in protecting and encouraging heritage values the shire.
	3.
	4.
	5.
	6.
Mount Morgan Shire continues sustainable use of its productive agricultural and pastoral land and resources while biodiversity, scenic qualities and recreational potential of its natural areas are enhanced	1.	Monitor data on agricultural production for the shire. Reports on the quality of soil and water resources of the shire	Gauge the productivity of agricultural land.	The extent of land that is used for agricultural purposes, particularly where identified as good quality agricultural land may indicate the effectiveness of the planning scheme in supporting sustainable land use
	2.	Maintain a register of GQAL in the shire available for production	Gauge the protection of GQAL	The extent that GQAL is retained may indicate the effectiveness of the planning scheme in supporting sustainable land use

	3.	Monitor quality of water in the water supply impoundments	Gauge the ongoing quality of the water and land catchment.	A decrease in the quality of water may indicate the ineffectiveness of the scheme in protecting Mount Morgan's water supply.
	4.	Monitor reports on the quality of water in the Dee River water supply impoundments	Gauge the ongoing quality of the Dee River	A increase in the quality of water may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme in encouraging improvement in the ecological health of the Dee river
	5.	Maintain a register of development in the natural area of the shire	Gauge the use of the shire by recreational users	Any growth of developments in the natural areas may indicate the effectiveness of the scheme to encourage developments in these zones