5 Policy Statement

Council's aim is to attract, select, employ and retain quality employees who will contribute to Council's culture and values.

All recruitment and selection will be made using merit, confidentiality and equal employment principles. A fair, equitable, consistent and transparent recruitment process will be undertaken to appoint all employees of Council.

5.1 Recruitment and Selection Principles

The following are Council's recruitment and selection principles.

5.1.1 Merit

Council ensures the best applicant is appointed to a vacant position based on merit.

The selection panel use a number of selection techniques to determine the best suited applicant for the role, comparing each applicant's abilities, aptitude, skills, qualifications, knowledge, experience, achievements, personal qualities and potential. The selection panel will assess each applicant's suitability against Council's business requirements, organisational and job fit and the requirements of the vacant position.

5.1.2 Equal Employment Opportunity

Council is an equal employment opportunity employer and is committed to ensuring all applicants are not discriminated against and are treated in a manner consistent with Council's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy.

5.1.3 Confidentiality

Selection panel members must ensure all information gathered throughout the recruitment and selection process remains private and confidential. Council respects and complies with its obligations under Council's Privacy Policy, the Code of Conduct, the Handling of Confidential Information Policy and relevant legislation.

Selection panel members are not to share details regarding applicants, their assessments/scoring or any interview notes taken during the interview process.

The selection panel may disclose applicant details to the manager or coordinator of the vacant position to aid in the decision making and approval process. The manager or coordinator is also required to keep applicant and recruitment details confidential.

5.2 Advertising Practices

For all vacancies, Council is committed to advertising internally. Where it is assessed that the skill level or suitable candidates may not be available in Council's workforce, the position may be advertised both internally and externally simultaneously with approval of a general manager.

5.3 Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs where a selection panel member has either an actual, perceived or potential conflict with an applicant that may impact the recruitment decision making process.

If a panel member is unsure if a conflict of interest exists, the panel member must discuss the individual situation with their supervisor or panel chair immediately and advise the HR Recruitment team as soon as possible.

Refer to Council's Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedure for more information on managing conflicts of interest.

5.4 Approval to Appoint

The CEO and Executive Manager W&G are delegated under section 196 of the Local Government Act 2009 to appoint employees.

The Panel Chairperson has the responsibility to provide W&G with the correct documentation, recommendation and justification to appoint based on the principles of merit.

6 Review Timelines

This policy is reviewed when any of the following occur:

- (a) The related information is amended or replaced; or
- (b) Other circumstances as determined from time to time by the CEO.
